Who should attend?

- Basic physician trainees who are planning to commence General Medicine advanced training in 2026
- Basic physician trainees who are interested in dual training with General Medicine advanced training
- Current dual advanced trainees who are yet to commence General Medicine advanced training
- Medical officers who are considering a career as a physician in adult medicine

Why?

The evening will provide:

- An overview of the network, RACP training requirements, the network's educational program, training opportunities and how to maximise training
- Practical information on how to apply
- A trainee's perspective on training in a regional hospital.

Attendees will have the opportunity to ask questions of the presenter.
