

Planning for Physician Training

All applicants wishing to undertake basic physician training in Queensland must apply to the Queensland Basic Physician Training (Adult Medicine) Network. As part of your application, you must provide evidence that you have made an informed decision regarding physician training. To satisfy this selection criteria if you are applying to COMMENCE TRAINING you are required to:

- Provide evidence that you've discussed your plan for basic physician training with a RACP Educational Supervisor (ES) or Director of Physician Education (DPE) including your anticipated commencement timeframe - i.e. mid-year entry (August 2026), standard training year (Jan/Feb 2027), or deferral (by June 2027)
- Ask the DPE / ES to complete and sign this form
- Submit your application through the Resident Medical Officer \(RMO\) and Registrar campaign within the specified dates
- Upload this signed form as part of your application

 This form does not endorse your selection into training. You must complete all other requirements outlined in the How to Apply guide to be considered for selection into training.
