

Palliative Medicine preference guide

RMO and Registrar Campaign

New and current trainee applicants interested in applying for a training position, need to complete the Queensland Palliative Medicine Advanced Training Pathway section within the online RMO application.

Queensland Palliative Medicine Advanced Training Pathway

Are you applying for a position on the Queensland Palliative Medicine Advanced Training Pathway?

Please visit the Queensland Palliative Medicine Advanced Training Pathway  for specific and important information on applying for a position. *

No

You will be asked to select your most preferred training facility/service from the list below for the 1st half of 2025 and 2nd half of 2025. Training placements are usually six months in duration, however in some cases may be up to 12 months. You will also need to select an additional facility preference for either the 1st or 2nd half or the entire 2025 training year.

Please select your most preferred accredited training facility/service for the first half of the 2025 training year:
Refer to  RACP Accredited Sites for Advanced Training for specific module details. *

Preferences indicated do not guarantee you an allocated position to the hospital of your choice. Training placements are usually 6 months with some being 12 months in duration. It is therefore important that you select your most preferred facilities/services for both the first and the second half of the 2024 training year.

Please select your most preferred training facility/service for the second half of the 2025 training year: *
