

Rural advanced skills training preference guide

RMO and Registrar Campaign

The Rural Advanced Skills Training Pathway supports medical officers with targeted training, development and support to become a Rural Generalist.

The pathway is flexible and provides you with the opportunity to:

- explore a wide variety of clinical training;
- develop the advanced skill set needed to support the health needs of rural communities.

Find out more about the pathway on the Queensland Rural AST Pathway website.

RMO Application: Step 10 Preferences

Once you have applied to the Rural AST pathway section, preference your specialty and sub-specialty combination, as follows:

What is your first preferred facility? *

College/Pathway/Network (Determined) ▼

What is your first preferred position status? *

Full Time ▼

What is your first preferred position? *

Principal House Officer ▼

What is your first preferred Specialty? *

Anaesthesia ▼

What is your first preferred Sub-Specialty? *

Advanced Skills Training RG (Anaes) ▼

Please select your specialty of choice:

- Anaesthesia
- Internal medicine
- Mental Health
- Obstetrics and Gynaecology
- Palliative medicine, or
- Paediatrics

And select the 'Advanced Skills Training' option.

You have 5 preferences available to use for positions. If you are not allocated by the Rural AST pathway, once the General RMO Campaign is open, log back in and amend your preferences by searching for alternative vacancies by using the Position search tool on the RMO website.
